

Università degli Studi della Basilicata
Scuola di Ingegneria

PROF. FRANCESCO SCORZA

SCIENTIFIC CURRICULUM VITAE:

Environmental Engineer and PhD in Sciences and Methods for the City and the European Territory, developed research in the disciplines of regional and urban planning at the Laboratory of Urban and Regional Systems Engineering (LISUT) of the University of Basilicata since 2006.

The main research interests are in the planning of regional development and urban and regional planning with deepening into the assessment of plans and projects, spatial analysis, participation in the plan, the application of new technologies as DSS.

It carries out scientific and technical advice for public and private bodies in particular in the field of euro-design and transnational cooperation projects management.

He published in national and international journals and is a member of the following scientific communities: AISRE, ERSA, EES, INPUT, ECQTG, ICCSA

PROFESSOR'S OFFICE HOUR:

Matera – after lessons time l'orario di lezione

Potenza – LISUT Laboratory (IV floor - Engineering), Tuesday 11.00 - 13.00

E-MAIL: francescoscorza@gmail.com

WEBSITE: www.lisut.org

TELEPHONE: 347.7001363

